

THE SEA COAST ECHO
C. G. Morris, Editor and Publisher

Official Journal of The Board of Supervisors, Hancock County, Miss.

Official Journal of Board of Mayor and Aldermen City of Bay St. Louis

A salesman thinks you are easy when he talks of easy payments.

One good way to get up in the world is by keeping on the level.

One trouble with "the last word in style" is that it doesn't stay that way.

With better times promised, we may prepare to go into debt some more.

Filipinos still knock Wood. Perhaps the custom originated among them.

Bay St. Louis is well represented in Chicago this week. The "Dixie Flashes" are there.

Some tales make your hair stand on end, others have the effect of Stacom.

If you are afraid to call him an idiot, you may risk calling him a moron.

Don't ridicule a crank; with a little luck and advertising he might have been a genius.

Having already the noiseless airplane, we may look forward to noiseless soup and salery.

From a funeral oration: "Friends we have here only the shell of a man; the nut is gone."

If you want time to pass rapidly, just sign a good-sized note due in thirty days.

A bank cashier who wanted to be one of the 400 only missed it by one. His number is 399.

And now they are going to change the Bible in order it may be made "dry" and conform with the prohibition hysteria.

Fifty-one weeks before another income tax blank will have to be deciphered. This is about the best news of the week.

When he reminded her how much it cost to become an educated and intelligent man of the world, she complimented him on his economy.

Neighbors are so meddlesome. When Charles Vaught, of Evansville, Ind., was peacefully supporting two wives on $35 a week, the neighbors up and had him arrested for bigamy.

When the bride admitted it was the first meal she had ever cooked, hubby said he could have easily believed it was her second or even her third.

Since the income tax payment for Mississippi has been held up, pending a test case of the validity of the law, a cry goes up from Jackson, "We are short in State funds of one million dollars." The only reason for this ubiquitous law is "We need the money."

A group of gentlemen down from Jackson during the week purchased considerable property on the Gulf Coast, near Gulfport, for investment purposes. The eyes of the State are turned to the Gulf Coast.

Long Beach shipped twenty cars of early vegetables to Northern markets the early part of the present week. Which goes to show the Mississippi Gulf Coast confines itself not only to the festive tourist.

Under a new Turkish law all officials and other persons employed by the government must wear clothing made in Turkey. This is a very practical as well as drastic application of the trade at home idea.

Freak legislators are still on the job. One has introduced a bill in the North Carolina Legislature prohibiting anyone from flirting with lady teachers or college girls. Just what flirting consists of is not stated.

Eamonn de Valera, once a popular Irish hero and "president" of a self-constituted republic, had rotten eggs hurled at him when he tried to make a political speech against the present Free State government a few days ago. Eamonn lost out failing to sense the opportune moment for getting on the band wagon.

That the government will issue for the first time a one-half cent postage stamp on April 1st is no April fool joke. The new denomination has become necessary because of the new postal rates on third-class mail, effective April 15th. A 1 1/2 cent stamp bearing President Harding's picture is being prepared also for this class of mail.

Certain Germans declare that France's Unknown Soldier, whose remains rest at the Arch of Triumph in Paris, was really August Schulte. A German whose body was picked up on Combes Hill, where French and German dead were piled in a mass. The French indignantly deny this and another heated controversy is being waged by the press of the two countries, which mutual hatred is

DELINQUENT REALTY TAX ROLLS

STATE OF MISSISSIPPI: HANCOCK COUNTY

Notice is hereby given that on MONDAY, the 1st DAY OF APRIL, 1924, at 10 o'clock a.m. at the front door of the courthouse of Hancock County, in the City of Bay St. Louis, within legal hours, at public outcry, to the highest bidder for cash, the following lands, delinquent for the State, County, Special Schools, Bond, Road and Bridge, Bond Fund, School and Sea Wall, Bond Fund Roads, taxes and interest for the year 1922, or as much thereof as may be necessary to pay the same, and to sell taxes and all costs, to wit:

A salesman thinks you are easy when he talks of easy payments.

One good way to get up in the world is by keeping on the level.

One trouble with "the last word in style" is that it doesn't stay that way.

With better times promised, we may prepare to go into debt some more.

Filipinos still knock Wood. Perhaps the custom originated among them.

Bay St. Louis is well represented in Chicago this week. The "Dixie Flashes" are there.

Some tales make your hair stand on end, others have the effect of Stacom.

If you are afraid to call him an idiot, you may risk calling him a moron.

Don't ridicule a crank; with a little luck and advertising he might have been a genius.

Having already the noiseless airplane, we may look forward to noiseless soup and salery.

From a funeral oration: "Friends we have here only the shell of a man; the nut is gone."

If you want time to pass rapidly, just sign a good-sized note due in thirty days.

A bank cashier who wanted to be one of the 400 only missed it by one. His number is 399.

And now they are going to change the Bible in order it may be made "dry" and conform with the prohibition hysteria.

Fifty-one weeks before another income tax blank will have to be deciphered. This is about the best news of the week.

When he reminded her how much it cost to become an educated and intelligent man of the world, she complimented him on his economy.

Neighbors are so meddlesome. When Charles Vaught, of Evansville, Ind., was peacefully supporting two wives on $35 a week, the neighbors up and had him arrested for bigamy.

When the bride admitted it was the first meal she had ever cooked, hubby said he could have easily believed it was her second or even her third.

Since the income tax payment for Mississippi has been held up, pending a test case of the validity of the law, a cry goes up from Jackson, "We are short in State funds of one million dollars." The only reason for this ubiquitous law is "We need the money."

A group of gentlemen down from Jackson during the week purchased considerable property on the Gulf Coast, near Gulfport, for investment purposes. The eyes of the State are turned to the Gulf Coast.

Long Beach shipped twenty cars of early vegetables to Northern markets the early part of the present week. Which goes to show the Mississippi Gulf Coast confines itself not only to the festive tourist.

Under a new Turkish law all officials and other persons employed by the government must wear clothing made in Turkey. This is a very practical as well as drastic application of the trade at home idea.

Freak legislators are still on the job. One has introduced a bill in the North Carolina Legislature prohibiting anyone from flirting with lady teachers or college girls. Just what flirting consists of is not stated.

Eamonn de Valera, once a popular Irish hero and "president" of a self-constituted republic, had rotten eggs hurled at him when he tried to make a political speech against the present Free State government a few days ago. Eamonn lost out failing to sense the opportune moment for getting on the band wagon.

That the government will issue for the first time a one-half cent postage stamp on April 1st is no April fool joke. The new denomination has become necessary because of the new postal rates on third-class mail, effective April 15th. A 1 1/2 cent stamp bearing President Harding's picture is being prepared also for this class of mail.

Certain Germans declare that France's Unknown Soldier, whose remains rest at the Arch of Triumph in Paris, was really August Schulte. A German whose body was picked up on Combes Hill, where French and German dead were piled in a mass. The French indignantly deny this and another heated controversy is being waged by the press of the two countries, which mutual hatred is

A salesman thinks you are easy when he talks of easy payments.

One good way to get up in the world is by keeping on the level.

One trouble with "the last word in style" is that it doesn't stay that way.

With better times promised, we may prepare to go into debt some more.

Filipinos still knock Wood. Perhaps the custom originated among them.

Bay St. Louis is well represented in Chicago this week. The "Dixie Flashes" are there.

Some tales make your hair stand on end, others have the effect of Stacom.

If you are afraid to call him an idiot, you may risk calling him a moron.

Don't ridicule a crank; with a little luck and advertising he might have been a genius.

Having already the noiseless airplane, we may look forward to noiseless soup and salery.

From a funeral oration: "Friends we have here only the shell of a man; the nut is gone."

If you want time to pass rapidly, just sign a good-sized note due in thirty days.

A bank cashier who wanted to be one of the 400 only missed it by one. His number is 399.

And now they are going to change the Bible in order it may be made "dry" and conform with the prohibition hysteria.

Fifty-one weeks before another income tax blank will have to be deciphered. This is about the best news of the week.

When he reminded her how much it cost to become an educated and intelligent man of the world, she complimented him on his economy.

Neighbors are so meddlesome. When Charles Vaught, of Evansville, Ind., was peacefully supporting two wives on $35 a week, the neighbors up and had him arrested for bigamy.

When the bride admitted it was the first meal she had ever cooked, hubby said he could have easily believed it was her second or even her third.

Since the income tax payment for Mississippi has been held up, pending a test case of the validity of the law, a cry goes up from Jackson, "We are short in State funds of one million dollars." The only reason for this ubiquitous law is "We need the money."

A group of gentlemen down from Jackson during the week purchased considerable property on the Gulf Coast, near Gulfport, for investment purposes. The eyes of the State are turned to the Gulf Coast.

Long Beach shipped twenty cars of early vegetables to Northern markets the early part of the present week. Which goes to show the Mississippi Gulf Coast confines itself not only to the festive tourist.

Under a new Turkish law all officials and other persons employed by the government must wear clothing made in Turkey. This is a very practical as well as drastic application of the trade at home idea.

Freak legislators are still on the job. One has introduced a bill in the North Carolina Legislature prohibiting anyone from flirting with lady teachers or college girls. Just what flirting consists of is not stated.

Eamonn de Valera, once a popular Irish hero and "president" of a self-constituted republic, had rotten eggs hurled at him when he tried to make a political speech against the present Free State government a few days ago. Eamonn lost out failing to sense the opportune moment for getting on the band wagon.

That the government will issue for the first time a one-half cent postage stamp on April 1st is no April fool joke. The new denomination has become necessary because of the new postal rates on third-class mail, effective April 15th. A 1 1/2 cent stamp bearing President Harding's picture is being prepared also for this class of mail.

Certain Germans declare that France's Unknown Soldier, whose remains rest at the Arch of Triumph in Paris, was really August Schulte. A German whose body was picked up on Combes Hill, where French and German dead were piled in a mass. The French indignantly deny this and another heated controversy is being waged by the press of the two countries, which mutual hatred is

A salesman thinks you are easy when he talks of easy payments.

One good way to get up in the world is by keeping on the level.

One trouble with "the last word in style" is that it doesn't stay that way.

With better times promised, we may prepare to go into debt some more.

Filipinos still knock Wood. Perhaps the custom originated among them.

Bay St. Louis is well represented in Chicago this week. The "Dixie Flashes" are there.

Some tales make your hair stand on end, others have the effect of Stacom.

If you are afraid to call him an idiot, you may risk calling him a moron.

Don't ridicule a crank; with a little luck and advertising he might have been a genius.

Having already the noiseless airplane, we may look forward to noiseless soup and salery.

From a funeral oration: "Friends we have here only the shell of a man; the nut is gone."

If you want time to pass rapidly, just sign a good-sized note due in thirty days.

A bank cashier who wanted to be one of the 400 only missed it by one. His number is 399.

And now they are going to change the Bible in order it may be made "dry" and conform with the prohibition hysteria.

Fifty-one weeks before another income tax blank will have to be deciphered. This is about the best news of the week.

When he reminded her how much it cost to become an educated and intelligent man of the world, she complimented him on his economy.

Neighbors are so meddlesome. When Charles Vaught, of Evansville, Ind., was peacefully supporting two wives on $35 a week, the neighbors up and had him arrested for bigamy.

When the bride admitted it was the first meal she had ever cooked, hubby said he could have easily believed it was her second or even her third.

Since the income tax payment for Mississippi has been held up, pending a test case of the validity of the law, a cry goes up from Jackson, "We are short in State funds of one million dollars." The only reason for this ubiquitous law is "We need the money."

A group of gentlemen down from Jackson during the week purchased considerable property on the Gulf Coast, near Gulfport, for investment purposes. The eyes of the State are turned to the Gulf Coast.

Long Beach shipped twenty cars of early vegetables to Northern markets the early part of the present week. Which goes to show the Mississippi Gulf Coast confines itself not only to the festive tourist.

Under a new Turkish law all officials and other persons employed by the government must wear clothing made in Turkey. This is a very practical as well as drastic application of the trade at home idea.

Freak legislators are still on the job. One has introduced a bill in the North Carolina Legislature prohibiting anyone from flirting with lady teachers or college girls. Just what flirting consists of is not stated.

Eamonn de Valera, once a popular Irish hero and "president" of a self-constituted republic, had rotten eggs hurled at him when he tried to make a political speech against the present Free State government a few days ago. Eamonn lost out failing to sense the opportune moment for getting on the band wagon.

That the government will issue for the first time a one-half cent postage stamp on April 1st is no April fool joke. The new denomination has become necessary because of the new postal rates on third-class mail, effective April 15th. A 1 1/2 cent stamp bearing President Harding's picture is being prepared also for this class of mail.

Certain Germans declare that France's Unknown Soldier, whose remains rest at the Arch of Triumph in Paris, was really August Schulte. A German whose body was picked up on Combes Hill, where French and German dead were piled in a mass. The French indignantly deny this and another heated controversy is being waged by the press of the two countries, which mutual hatred is

A salesman thinks you are easy when he talks of easy payments.

One good way to get up in the world is by keeping on the level.

One trouble with "the last word in style" is that it doesn't stay that way.

With better times promised, we may prepare to go into debt some more.

Filipinos still knock Wood. Perhaps the custom originated among them.

Bay St. Louis is well represented in Chicago this week. The "Dixie Flashes" are there.

Some tales make your hair stand on end, others have the effect of Stacom.

If you are afraid to call him an idiot, you may risk calling him a moron.

Don't ridicule a crank; with a little luck and advertising he might have been a genius.

Having already the noiseless airplane, we may look forward to noiseless soup and salery.

From a funeral oration: "Friends we have here only the shell of a man; the nut is gone."

If you want time to pass rapidly, just sign a good-sized note due in thirty days.

A bank cashier who wanted to be one of the 400 only missed it by one. His number is 399.

And now they are going to change the Bible in order it may be made "dry" and conform with the prohibition hysteria.

Fifty-one weeks before another income tax blank will have to be deciphered. This is about the best news of the week.

THE SEA COAST ECHO
C. G. Moreau, Editor and Publisher

TRADE IN YOUR HOME
TOWN CITY ECHOES.

All P. T. A.'s will gather at Kiln next Saturday at the County Convention. Come one, come all!

Mrs. Donald Marshall has gone to McHenry today to the Stone County Parent-Teachers' Convention.

China Rugs, 9x12, $3.85. The Bay Mercantile Co.

Mrs. F. H. Adams, State historian of the Mississippi P. T. A., will be a guest of the Hancock County P. T. A. at Kiln next Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Griffith, of Vicksburg, are visiting their son, Mr. D. C. Griffith, on the Waveland Beach Front.

Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Smith went down to New Orleans Friday, the Doctor on a professional call, both returning home last night.

Boys' Bats, Balls, Masks and Gloves. The Bay Mercantile Co.

Mrs. Aline Whyer, of New Orleans, is visiting at the home of her brother, Mr. E. J. Dupuc, and family, at the family home on the beach front.

Mesdames Winfield Partridge, George R. Rea, E. J. Lacoste and W. J. Harrison motored over to Gulfport Thursday and spent a while in Pass Christian en route.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Nye, of Waveland, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on March 18th. Mr. and Mrs. Nye had hoped to have a family reunion at this time, but owing to the illness of a grandchild it was postponed until summer.

Gold Band Crockery, exclusive pattern, by the set or the piece. The Bay Mercantile Co.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Spiess came out from New Orleans Wednesday evening and were the house guests of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Moreau, and spent Thursday morning along the west end of the Gulf Coast.

Hats from the wee tot to the matron for spring and summer at Mrs. McWilliams' Millinery Store, head of Main street. Latest and attractive creations; prices are most reasonable. See display adv. elsewhere in this issue of The Echo.

Ice Cream Freezers, Water Coolers and Leonard Refrigerators and Ice Boxes. The Bay Mercantile Co.

Misses Margaret Green and Aline Ransen returned home Thursday morning from New Orleans, where they spent several days visiting friends. Miss Ransen is preparing to leave next month for California, where she plans to spend a year visiting relatives at Los Angeles.

The Bay St. Louis-Waveland Civic League has called a meeting for this Saturday evening, March 21, at courthouse, 8 o'clock, "for the purpose of taking action securing a golf course and consideration of other matters that may come before the meeting." The public is invited.

Special on Floor Covering by the yard, al week, beginning Monday, March 23rd. The Bay Mercantile Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Bordages, of El Paso, Texas, arrived here Thursday and will spend a while visiting their relatives, Mrs. F. C. Bordages, Sr., Miss Daisy Bordages and brother, Mr. F. C. Bordages, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Bordages will remain for a short visit before returning home.

Mr. Jos. T. Buddeke, editor and publisher of Society Talk Magazine, New Orleans, is a regular weekend visitor to Bay St. Louis, and today is registered at the fashionable Hotel Weston. Mr. Buddeke is an ardent booster of the Mississippi Gulf Coast and never misses an opportunity to visit Bay St. Louis.

Furniture of all kinds and prices. Chairs, Rockers, Wardrobes, Dressing Tables, Dining Tables, Hoozier Cabinets and Porch Rockers, Iron Beds, Mattresses and Springs. The Bay Mercantile Co.

John R. Upton, well known attorney at New Orleans, has leased the handsome W. J. Harrison villa on the beach front for the summer season and, with his family, will spend the summer in Bay St. Louis. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison will occupy their attractive place on the banks of the Jordan river.

B. C. Dicks, of New Orleans, and connected with the well known wholesale drug of Finlay, Dicks & Co., during the wee kprurchased the beautiful Gulf place, located rear of Waveland, from the owner, J. W. Wood, for a consideration of $8,000. Mr. Dicks plans to improve the place considerably and will make it his home.

Practically $100,000.00 worth of building and building improvements, namely the building this summer of the new business and Masonic Temple, in Main street, and the improvement and completion of the Church of Our Lady of the Gulf, also for the coming season. Here in only two items we have quite a sum for improvements for Bay St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Lorch, of New Orleans, fond of the Gulf Coast and who spend every available moment here, returned to New Orleans Monday, after spending the weekend at their villa on the beach front. Mr. Lorch says he never feels so well as when on the Coast and he plans to have his family move here for the season as early as possible.

W. J. Gex, Mrs. Gex and daughter, son, Lucien Gex, and Mrs. Conner left Tuesday-by way of Gulfport in the big family Lincoln car for a trip to Oxford, where they are visiting Walter J. Gex, Jr., one of the law students at University of Mississippi. Before returning home Mr. and Mrs. Gex and party will tour several sections of the State and will go home for a week or two.

The Echo has been requested to announce there will be a general cleaning of St. Mary's Cemetery on April 1st. The committee in charge of the work, of which Mrs. Elizabeth Boudin is president, solicits contributions in order to defray the cost. Mrs. Boudin says we will clean the BRIDGE ACROSS BAY ST. LOUIS.

Lack of Quorum Delays Consideration of Line Bid Filed.

Consideration of the lone bid submitted with the Harrison County Board of Supervisors for construction of the proposed toll bridge across Bay of St. Louis, has been postponed to the regular April meeting of the board. The sealed bid of A. J. Holtwanger, of New Orleans, the only one received in response to widespread advertising, was scheduled to come before a joint meeting of the Harrison and Hancock county supervisors, but for lack of a quorum no action could be taken. Those present were H. S. Westcott, representing Hancock county, and L. E. O'Neal and Paul Evans, of Hancock county. E. J. Adams, president of the Harrison county board, said he was attending a meeting at Greenwood.

Opening of the Bay St. Louis curb market Wednesday morning attracted many interested, both sellers and purchasers, and it is evident the curb market, sponsored by the Bay St. Louis Women's Study Club, is going to fill a long felt want. J. N. Wisner contributed a considerable amount of home-grown vegetables, the proceeds of which were given to the Study Club in order to help defray the initial expense, a generous thought on his behalf. Mrs. A. F. Fournier, chairlady of the committee in charge of this phase of work of the Study Club, is to be complimented on the marked success attending the inauguration of the project.

The farm of H. C. Welch, on the Bay-Kiln road, near Bay St. Louis, attracts the attention of all who pass by. This is one of the best kept and interesting places of the kind locally. Mrs. Welch's poultry department is one of more success hereabouts, specializing in Rhode Island Reds. Eggs for setting from this specialty fine strain are offered for sale at a price below the regular figures in order to dispose of the many eggs and to get this fine breed started locally. Readers interested in buying setting eggs of fine breed and way below the regular cost will do well to apply to the Welch Farm.

An amendment to the charter of the Peoples Building & Loan Association of Bay St. Louis is published in this issue of The Echo, allowing the corporation to do business outside of the corporate limits of Waveland and Bay St. Louis and allowing a stockholder to hold more than twenty-five shares, that number the limit at present. Both amendments are for the purpose of expanding the usefulness of the association and to allow bigger individual holding. The city and vicinity are growing fast and the association and its business must keep the pace.

The ball given on St. Joseph night, benefit local fire company, of which Martial Bertin was chairman of the general committee in charge, claimed a large attendance and the masquerade proved thoroughly enjoyable. Net results of the evening made the fire company's exchequer $60.00 richer. The company appreciates the patronage which made this success possible.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. John Beuhler was severely scalded a few days ago. His condition was so serious he was taken to New Orleans for further attention. It appears Mrs. Beuhler was boiling a ham in a big cauldron in the yard. The little fellow saw a cat wrangling with a snake and apparently rushing to the rescue of the cat fell over the pot of boiling water.

LADIES

Let E. B. Mitchell trim your Easter hat or renovate your old one. 114 Booker Avenue.

WORK AND PLAY AT S. J. A.

(By the Eighth Graders.)

Verna's Party.

Sunday afternoon Verna Batson was given a delightful surprise party by her friends and classmates: Theresa Ward, Nancy Lott, Juanita Benigno and Peggy Wortham. The occasion of the party was Verna's 14th birthday and she will long remember it.

The color scheme, pink and white, was carried out in the decorations, favors and centerpiece.

The refreshments were enjoyed immensely, and the gay party spent the remainder of the afternoon in taking pictures for their "Memory" Books.

Class '29.

Listen all and you will hear Of the Grammar Grads of the present year.

First, we have Judith, fairest of all; She is just about five feet tall.

Marion's weight I won't announce,

But she's good-hearted for every ounce.

Clothilde Monti is an athlete, Some folks call her a "second Zeke." Next is Hazel, ever gay.

Spreading sunshine through the day, Vesta "Peacock" for that's her name.

Is also climbing the ladder of fame.

Jennie, most quiet of the class,

Is wondering already if she will pass.

Verna, this session started real well,

But she slipped somehow and Oh!

She'll be back.

Nancy to drawing much time gives,

For she's an artist. I say she is.

Kathleen's pretty chestnut hair

Is always getting fixed with gentle care.

Juanita, with whom we can compare,

Not the alone long brown hair.

Now we have Genevieve, always smiling.

All our troubles thus beguiling—

As a "movie fan" Anna Dale can't be beat.

Sophie is sweet as red as you'll ever meet.

Peggy is very bright in class,

But she's always talking and has too much to say.

When class is over, she's still around the room.

So here we are, the eighth graders.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

ROOMS FOR RENT. Furnished Room For Rent. Apply 317 Carroll Avenue.

FOR SALE. Five work mutes, in good condition. Apply to Hines Lumber Co., Kilm, Miss. Jos. McCue.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

GASTON G. GARDEBLE

ARCHITECT

POPLARVILLE, MISS.

WILLIAM COOPER

REAL ESTATE

AND

INSURANCE

Telephone 47-W. P. O. Box 277.

BAY ST. LOUIS, MISS.

SHAW & WOLEBEN

ENGINEERS, ARCHITECTS

GULFPORT, MISS.

PLANS—SPECIFICATIONS, SURVEYS,

ESTIMATES.

REPORTS AND SUPERVISION

FOR

ENGINEERING AND ARCHITECTURAL

WORKS AND STRUCTURES.

DR. R. S. PLUNKETT

Office: Hancock Bank Bldg.

Office hours: 10 to 11 A. M. & 1 to 5 P. M.

Phones: Office 307-J. Residence 47-J.

BAY ST. LOUIS, MISS.

DR. J. A. EVANS

DENTIST

Hours: 9 to 12, 1:30 to 6.

Hancock County Bank Building.

Telephone No. 34.

BAY ST. LOUIS, MISSISSIPPI

GEY & WALLACE

AMMUNITION DEALERS

DAVIS & CO.

DAVIS & CO.